What Does God Require of You?

Context:

I. Your Condition & Consequences

Your sin is known by God and will bring you His judgment.

II. Your Consolation

Your hope must rest in the unchanging love and faithfulness of God.

Christ in Micah: The fulfillment of the love and justice of God.

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

1. Micah naturally breaks into 3 messages, each beginning with the word "Hear." Skim through each section and jot down what you see concerning the sin and its consequences for God's people.

Chapters 1-2

Chapters 3-5

Chapters 6-7

What is God's message to you?

2. There are also words of consolation and encouragement in each section. Skim through each section again and jot down the words of hope God promises His people they would see. (Most of this would be fulfilled for future generations of God's people.)

Chapters 1-2

Chapters 3-5

Chapters 6-7

How do the words of consolation in Micah encourage you?

3. The justice and love of God both resound in Micah. How does this point to Christ? In what way(s) can this affect your walk with God?
