Habakkuk: An Upset with God Correction

I. Context (1:1)

II. Complaint #1 (1:2-11)

God is not indifferent toward sin, judgment is on its way!

III. Complaint #2 (1:12-2:20)

God's instrument of judgment may be appalling to His people, but it will face His judgment as well.

IV. Correction (3:1-19)

All fear of God's judgment can be met with faith in God's character.

Christ in Habakkuk: the One who took God's judgment on our sin for us.

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

1. Read Habakkuk 1:2-4. Why is Habakkuk upset with God?

Have you been upset with God about such things? Explain.

2. Habakkuk hears God's answer in verses 5-11. What confuses and troubles him next? (See Habakkuk 1:12-17)

3. Read Habakkuk 2:1-2. What's happening?

Skim through Habakkuk chapter 2. What are some of the sins that get pointed out?

Do you see any of these sins in our land today? What's the message for those who are guilty of these sins?

What's the message for those who are not guilty?

4. How does Habakkuk's thoughts toward God and his prayer change in Habakkuk 3:1-2?

Habakkuk reflects on the Lord's mighty works in history in Habakkuk 3:3-15. What is his realization and response?

5. What is Habakkuk's resolve, knowing God's judgment and the horrors that will accompany it are inevitable? (Habakkuk 3:17-19)

What personal application do you see for you today, in these last three verses, and this book?
