Application Questions – These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Growth Group for even more benefit.

- I. Be an example of Christ to those around you.
  1. This passage is all about being an example of Christ to others. Who is the best example of Christ you've known? Explain.
  2. Read Acts 9:36, 1 Timothy 5:9-10 and Titus 3:14. What do these passages teach you about good works?
  3. Teaching is something that happens formally and informally. Who are you intentionally teaching about the truths of the Christian faith? And how are you teaching them?
  4. What are some ways that your good work ethic is an example of Christ to those around you?
  5. What is one way that you can be a better example of Christ this week?
- II. Be an example of Good Works.
- III. Be an example of Good Teaching.
- IV. Be an example of Good Work Ethic.
- V. By being good examples, we make the Gospel more attractive to others!
