

Application Questions - These questions are provided for your further study and application of the subject of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out answers to these questions will help drive home the point. They are designed to be discussed in your home, with other believers, and in a Life Group for even more benefit.

When God Moves

I. The Extraordinary (25-28)

Prayer and praise can testify to God's sovereignty!

II. The Explanation (29-32)

When God surfaces a person's need the answer is often the gospel.

III. The Evidence (33-34)

The gospel understood and believed produces evidence.

1. Have you been baptized? What do you remember about it? (Who, how, when, where, why, what were your thoughts?)

2. Read Acts 16:25-28. What surprising things happened that night?

If you had been beaten and were in prison for living out your faith, what would you have been praying for? Would you have been singing praises to God, or not? Explain.

3. What question did the jailer ask in Acts 16:29-32, and what drove him to the point of asking?

What drove you to the point of desiring to be saved?

4. How would you explain what, "Believe in the Lord Jesus," means? (Verses 31-32). Are there any other Scriptures that come to mind?

Often people simply want God to save them from a difficult circumstance. How does this account address that?

5. Read Acts 16:33-34. What were the responses of the jailer to the message Paul gave him? Why did he respond this way?

What are, and have been, some of your responses to believing in the Lord Jesus? Why?
