Today's Reading:
2 John

Today, at church I learned:

This short, second letter from the Apostle John was written to the early church as a warning against worldly deceivers who did not confess the truth of Jesus Christ. John warned the church to be on guard, to walk in obedience to the commandments of God, to hold fast to the truth of the gospel, and to love one another.

Jesus prayed for His

And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard from the beginning, his command is that you walk in love.
